Have you heard about the Bar Soap strong enough
 RRP $3.28 for a 3 pack,

Fab Finds

Curiosity will make you a very kewl kat indeed, when you discover the Artisan Guild & Curiosity Shop, 263 Oxford St, Darlinghurst. You'll have to be hot on the tiles to catch the best bargains as the store is only open June through to July. But if it's all things vintage you seek, from quirky objects, such as the Phil Young clocks that go backwards, to kooky labels including Marsu Homme, whose special offer of two pairs of shoes for the price of one and 30 per cent off single pairs, ends July 31, then get on down guys. And boys definitely don't cry in sassy Saint Augustine, Toby Jones accessories has the kind of edge that you can only find in a curiously kitsch Aladdin's cave like this one.

VANITY CASE

Gillette Fusion Phenom shaver, $12.99 and $16.99 with battery

Just because it's cold out, now is not the time to be channelling your inner Grizzly Adams. To help ease the transition, Gillette has brought out the high performance Gillette Fusion Phenom shaver. I took one for a test drive and it curved and navigated the contours of my face perfectly.

WORDS BY SCOTT WINTER

new Palmolive For Men Arctic for us guys?... pass it on fellas!
 available from supermarkets.

Health Spot

If your idea of a balanced diet is steak, mash and a beer, rather than the two pieces of fruit and five serves of veggies that the health authorities recommend, opt for Aussie-owned Herron Daily Fruits, Berries and Vegetables. Two caps a day with a meal is all you need to keep your body in peak performance. RRP $22.99 for 46 capsules, available at pharmacy and grocery outlets.

STYLE BYTE

Isson Eyewear's "Fats" sunglasses, $229

Look poised and protect the eyes. Taking their cue from the autumn/winter collections, sunglasses this season are rich in luxurious browns. This pair is sure to be a hit with the urban chic geek. Ph: 1800 008 139

WEB BUY

Ever nodded off on the train? Felt sick in a car or plane? Or just needed fresh air? Our polluted environment can starve us of the natural negative ions (charged oxygen atoms). The Elanra pendant, worn around the neck, can make you feel instantly revived, $295.
