GADGET CHAT

BREATHE EASY

An Australian company, Bionic Products, says it has created the world's first personal therapeutic ioniser, ELANRA Air, reducing your chances of catching airborne infections during plane travel.

Designed specifically for aircraft use, the TGA-certified device can be hung around your neck. It uses negative ions to clear the air around you.

Details: RRP $295, ph 1800 352 672.
